Good clean fun for a unique family experience

Meet BEAM, the low-maintenance, fun and engaging interactive projection game system that turns family meal time into family fun time.

Active play, without active maintenance

Think you have to choose between easy clean-up electronics, or physical play in tunnels and slides? Think again. All you need is a ceiling, a floor and BEAM.

Build customer loyalty

What would you do if 88% of your customers kept coming back every week? That's how many parents decide where to go based on BEAM alone.

Increase play, decrease cost

The only thing kids touch is the floor or table—eliminate the cost of cleaning and maintaining a physical play area with the all-inclusive BEAM system.
